Kadir KIZILIRMAK

Front-end Developer and Back-end Developer

About Me

Hello, I'm Kadir KIZILIRMAK. I'm a senior computer engineering student at New York University, Tirana. I successfully completed the Department of Business Administration at ATATÜRK University. I'm very knowledgeable about front-end and back-end programming. I have a good level of C# and an intermediate level of Python. I've developed many websites before. I develop back-end websites using ASP.NET Core and the n-connected architecture.
